What is the VLS/TS procedure?

Before your departure for France, the French consular services in your home country affixed a visa to your passport.
Territorial validity: France (EXCLUDING CTOM) “student” “CESEDA R 311-3 6” and “authorises part time employment up to 60 % of the legal time”

This visa authorises you to enter the territory of the French Republic for your studies. It only authorises you to stay for three months. If you intend to stay in France longer, you must complete administrative procedures to convert your visa into a residence permit (autorisation de séjour).

Attention: this permit will only be valid for your first year in France! For subsequent years, you must obtain a residence permit (carte de séjour).

How to convert your visa into a residence permit

Complete the application file
You must fill out the form issued to you by the French consulate titled: “Demande d’Attestation OFII” (OFII attestation request).

Attention: this form must be filled out carefully (particularly your address in Paris, your filiation, and your visa number) and be accompanied by photocopies of the pages of your passport where the following appear: your identity, the visa, the stamp affixed by customs officials which shows your date of entry into France.

This application file must be submitted to the Office Français de l’Immigration et de l’Intégration (OFII – French office of immigration and integration). To do so, three methods are available for foreign students residing in Paris depending on when they arrive or their host institution:
- At the start of the new school year from 6 September to 10 December 2010 by direct submission to the counter opened especially by the OFII at the cité internationale universitaire de Paris, boulevard Jourdan • 75014 Paris • Harraucourt Room, from Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
- If you are a student at an institution that is partnered with the university liaison department of the police prefecture. No matter what time of the year, your host institution will compile the application file with you and will make sure that it is processed by the proper authorities.
- If you are not enrolled at an institution affiliated with the university liaison department of the police prefecture and it is outside the back to school period: by sending the application file by registered letter to the following address:
  OFII • 48 rue de la Roquette • 75011 Paris, France

Medical exam
Upon receiving your application file, the OFII will send you a receipt certifying that you have begun the administrative process and which gives you the date and time of your mandatory medical exam. For students who go to the cité internationale universitaire de Paris, the receipt and appointment will be given to them directly on the spot.

Attention: this document is important and you may be asked to present it in the event of a police check. You must bring the following documents with you for the appointment:
• your passport
• a bareheaded identity photograph
• a proof of residence (rent receipt, water, gas, electricity bill in your name or a lodging declaration).

You must also pay registration tax (€ 55) in the form of a specific stamp. After paying the tax and following the medical exam, the OFII will affix a vignette in your passport which will give it the status of a one-year residence permit as from your date of entry in France.
